

GROUND RULES 2023

- If there is only 1 qualified run or ride in an event, winner takes all prize money and awards.
- If there is a tie for 1st place, another buckle will be ordered but a flip for the buckle will take place that night of presentation. Total prize money will be split equally.
- If there is a tie for 2nd place, there will be another certificate ordered. 2nd place prize money will be split equally.
- If there is no qualified rides or times in events, all prizes and money will be rolled to 2024
- Young Gun Barrel pattern will be marked off the WPRA barrel stakes and the eyes will be set on WPRA eye stakes.
- If a contestant needs help in or around arena, parent/helper must be in full western attire.
- Breakaway Roping must be clean neck catch only, one loop. Ropers must bring own string and make sure rope has a flag or ribbon on the end of it.

ROUGH STOCK SPECIFIC

- If there isn't a qualified ride in the long go, all contestant names will be put in and drawn to see who gets to ride again Saturday night, 2 per event on Saturday night.
- If there is only one qualified ride in a rough stock event, then just the one qualified ride will come back Saturday night for short go.

YOUNG GUNS FOLLOWS PRCA AND WPRA RULES UNLESS NOTED ABOVE